Sending this note to Julie and Laurie who have been fellow choral members and who dearly loved Ruth Kimmel for many years: Recently, a few members of our choral participated in an informal program honoring Ruth Kimmel. We all enjoyed the smiles it brought to her and to some of the residents of Sunrise. Julie, you have been a constant source of love and caring for your Mom. How lucky you are to have such beautiful memories of the one who was so special and inspirational to your family. She was a good person who extended warmth & love to all of you throughout the years. Condolences to the family. Sue T

I lived next door to Ruth and Morrie on Vaughan in Detroit. Many wonderful memories as a small child of this gentle young mom and wife. I remember when Ruth was pregnant with Julie! When I was about 5 or 6, Ruth told me my rock collection was very nice... and that false teeth were made of stones just like the ones I had! So happy to hear she lived a long life with wonderful family and friends. Barbara Tauber Kenig, Las Vegas, NV
