“ When I moved to the east coast of Florida 1 1/2 years ago, Ruthe and I “reconnected”. My mother, Blanche Turett, and Ruthe were first cousins. I loved talking about our family stories. Our visits connected me to my family and when I would leave her home, my heart was full.

I have the fondest memories of Ruthe, Rosie, Gigi, Aunt Flora and Uncle Morris, one of the most wonderful families ever.

There is an empty spot in my life now without Ruthe.

My deepest condolences to her children and grandchildren who she adored so much.

Thank you Barbara. It was special connecting to Ron on Thursday and mom was always so enthusiastic about your visits. You have the honor of being the last family member to see mom in person, making you very special.
