

SAMUEL ZIEMAN

August 27, 2012

Age 94, of West Bloomfield, died August 26, 2012.

Mr. Zieman was drafted during World War II into the navy. While attending Basic Training, the government recalled him from duty in order to complete his position as a tool and die expert in order to assist in straightening out the gun turrets on the war ships.

He worked from the age of 9 till just a week ago at age 94 and was featured in the Oakland Press for working in his 90's and was also featured in American House advertisements. He worked for Skolnick Frames and began with 3 accounts and retired from that job with 400 accounts. He worked for Costco for the last 9 years as "The Sample Man" and was even given the title of "Employee of the Month".

An active Mason and Shriner, he volunteered with the circus, and gave his time to the V.A. Hospital. A Lifetime member of B'nai B'rith, he was also a 50 year member of AAA
