“ I'm so saddened and shocked to hear about Sandi's passing. Jerry, when I think of Sandi, what comes first to mind is her bright smile and cheery voice. From classes we've been in together, I remember her inquisitive determination to master the subject being taught. When, occasionally, I'd meet the two of you together on Shabbos, I'd feel a gentle harmony that seemed to flow between you. May Hashem help you find comfort at this difficult time.

Sandi was always creative and enthusiastic. Sandi and Jerry's home always felt warm and peaceful. Sandi had a collection of pretty teacups of assorted designs and delighted in sharing tea with these tea cups. The Shabbos foods were an adventure and fun recipe experiments, along with assorted tasty salts in lovely ceramic hand made plates. Best of all was the framed photo of Sandi and Jerry dancing together, which hangs on the wall. Sandi lovingly shared stories about her family photos, and Sandi also shared prayers for our families together. Sandi will be missed a lot and remembered with warmth and love, as was her way

“ Sandi, you will be sorely missed, especially at our monthly cousins lunch. We've had many conversations on so many different subjects, most recently we exchanged Passover recipes. You were a wealth of information one could go to to find something out. RIP our dear cousin Sandi, Much love, Sheryl and Jerry ❤️ ❤️
