*I extend condolences on the passing off Sandy Eisenberg. I have been out of Detroit for a long time, but maintain memories of his late parents Meyer & Bessie Eisenberg, who were devoted members of my Young Israel shul and friendships with his brother, Dennis and sons children, Mark, Michael & Lynn. May his Neshama have an Aliyah.

“ All one has to do is say “The Eisenbergs” to conjure up memory upon memory from arguably anyone who was associated with YIOW, Greenfield or OP during the 70’s, 80’s and that’s just from my limited perspective. It extends well beyond those years.

*I am saddened to hear of his passing.
ת.נ.צ.ב.ה. and may his family find nechama

“ Mr. and Mrs. Eisenberg hosted me for Succos in 1976 when they lived on Kenosha. Olav hashalom Mr. Eisenberg. Rabbi Lewis Davis. I was at HTC in Skokie with Michael. I was a senior and he was in eleventh grade.

“ Growing up with Yehuda (Michael), I spent endless hours at the Eisenberg home on Kenosha, always a fun place to be along with Yehuda's parents and Mark, Lynn, and the nutty family dog (Heidi?). One of my childhood memories is that Sandy a"h was the mover and shaker with anything related to Young Israel of Greenfield, following in the footsteps of his father Meyer a"h.
