“ Sara was one of my longest and most treasured relationships. She was a wonderful wife, mother, bubbe, and great bubbe! I'll miss her dearly. I send my love to all of the family. Sheila Kovalsky.

“ Auntie Sara was a dedicated and enthusiastic member of the Cohen family from Hamilton ON. She was always very supportive of her relatives and friends. Auntie Sara and Uncle Milton always welcomed me at their home in Detroit when I visited from Canada. I remember all of the good times that we shared at family reunions at Storybook Gardens in London ON. She always made sure that we had a picnic table reserved. Auntie Sara put up with my mischievous behaviour at the Pesach celebration on Barclay St. in Hamilton. In later years, when I was a bit more mature(and married) she was kind to my family. She will be greatly missed by all.

“ Nearly 60 years of memories. So many holiday dinners. So many visits. Those memories will last forever with me. May her memory always be for a blessing.
