“ I met Sharon shortly after she moved to California to live with her brother and sister-in-law. Sharon was among the kindest and most caring friends I've ever known. She always reached out if too much time went by to say "How are you, my darling?" and then proceed to ask what's new. I'll dearly miss those calls and the many lunches and conversations we shared. Sharon has a forever place in my heart.

“ Sharon became a very close friend as we shared our Michigan roots, Yiddish sayings, mah Jong buddies, Hadassah work, celebrations and long talks. Sharon was sharp, loved people and endeared everyone to her. She was an asset to the community and never complained about her many unfortunate illnesses. She was devoted to her family and kept in touch with everyone she knew. We shared books and exchanged ideas. Sharon made the world around her a better place and we will miss her caring, sweet, and thoughtful personality. She will be in my heart forever.
