“ My first cousin Sharon was sweet, kind and had a heart of gold. I loved listening to her relate family stories, she had the most amazingly clear memory and she really was our family historian. May her soul rest in peace surrounded by all our beloved family in heaven. I will love and miss my dear cousin Sharon always. ❤️😭

Sharon was a sweet human being, a gift from G-d, on loan to her family and friends. We met Sharon years ago when she wandered into the Fleischman Residence dining room on a particular Friday evening while Shelly and I were having our private Friday night/Shabbos dinner. From that first "chance" meeting, a long term friendship was forged. Eventually we met Marilyn, and then the extended family from California - Milt and Iris, and their family. Over the years we came to realize what a beautiful, special bond there was between the two sisters, and by extension, included Marilyn's 3 sons.

The closeness of Marilyn and Sharon was accentuated by the number of times that Sharon would have to go for rehab, and somehow (!) Marilyn managed to be placed in the same facility - so that the 2 of them could keep an eye on each other! We will all miss Sharon, but thank G-d, she will no longer know of pain and discomfort.

*Our warmest condolences to all of the grieving family members!

“ I met Sharon in 1972. Meeting her while dating her Cousin Milton. Sharon was working with REACT a team to respond to Emergency situations. With her husband of BM Monroe. And Boy Scouts of Detroit Area. When she retired. She lived at Heckman Hall in West Bloomfield. Helping their Rabbi Avie & his wife Shelly Shapiro. And they quickly became very good friends. Sharon was hospitable to me when my father needed to stay at Danto's Nursing center. Thank G-D for Shron. Sheva Gittle Bas Binyomin V Fraida Chiya.
