“ *So sorry for your loss.
This was a very moving beautiful ceremony, a real tribute to Sharon's life. Exactly as I will always remember her. A strong, very smart woman with wonderful family and Jewish values. She was very special lady.*

Sharon was a bright, witty, very good high school friend through happy times as well as difficult times. We shared many, meaningful, wonderful moments through book clubs, Cedar Point trips with our kids, NCJW protest trips to Lansing, Children's Advocates home visits, Girls' UpNorth weekends, Shakespeare trips, Hiking trips, and European trips. Her humorous letters to friends at U of M were so clever I thought they should be published. I have acquired many of her great recipes over the years. She had a life fully lived and I will miss her.

“ I met Sharon many years ago when she took my water aerobics class at the West Bloomfield Aquatics Center. She was a classy, smart and kind person. She had a great laugh and was the person who always had a smile on her face. I am saddened to hear of your loss. May her memory bring you comfort during this difficult time.

Sharon and I were best friends in first grade. I remember going over to play at her family's apartment on Elmhurst. I have a beautiful picture of our 1st grade class with our teacher Miss Porter and Sharon's lovely smile. So sorry to learn of her passing.
