“ My condolences to the family. I hadn't seen or spoken to Sheldon in many years. But I would like to remember him as a friend. The Klein family accepted me when I moved here from Phoenix. Treated me like family. Sorry I lost touch with you all.

“ We are missing you so much, baby 💔❤️👉❤️ Jasper most certainly is too. He still looks for you to hop out of the car after me. He has been very sweet though and loves being next to me as much as possible. I pray that I will see you in my dreams at night. We just didn't get enough time, but we are so blessed to have loved and lived so deeply...

“ Though i haven't seen Sheldon in many years he has and will always be in my thoughts. I have so many fond memories of his laughter and just the way he was. His whole family always made me feel right at home when I came to Detroit to visit from Toronto. Everything about Sheldon was exceptional - his laugh, jokes, accent and unfiltered language. He, along with his whole family, helped make me laugh and just feel good when he and his siblings were around. I have always felt like a relative given the relationship my parents had with his parents. I'm so fortunate to have maintained a loving relationship with Mindy who is always in my heart as we share so many fond memories. Sheldon always had unconditional love and friendship. My sisters (Sheryl and Karen) all were in shock about his passing and fortunately the memories we all shared with Sheldon and his siblings will always be cherished. For sure we will always remember Sheldon. Our love to his family and his children! It his hard to say goodbye to such a good soul and good that he will remain in our hearts! May he rest in peace.

“ My eternal friend Sheldon, if there’s one single person I can say had the biggest influence on me getting and staying clean it’s definitely you. From my first meeting where you singled me out, as you do all the newcomers, and told me that I was the most important person in the room and that I never had to use again, those words, your tone and unconditional love made me believe I could stay clean even when I didn’t think so myself. Your big, warm heart, direct style, curt tongue and wise-cracking ways made you who you were and reminded me of myself. You and Terra became such dear friends always making me feel welcome, accepted for who I am and gave and continue to give me so much strength. Finding out we were neighbors elevated our friendship even more. I was so excited for us to go to the shooting range, for you to teach me how to shoot some guns but that experience never happened. You were such a fighter right up to the end when your body simply couldn’t fight anymore. I have to take solace in the fact that you’re no longer suffering m, no longer in pain but damn Sheldon so many people are so deeply heartbroken that you had to leave us. You meant so much to so many people. I wish there was more I could’ve done to show you just how much I appreciated you and how much you meant to me, it’s very possible that you saved my life. So what I’ll do going forward is share the light, love, acceptance, strength and hope that you so gracefully gave me, with others, especially newcomers. It is my honor and duty to keep your spirit alive, blessing others, especially those, who are as I was when we met, lost, afraid and alone. Thank you for being the best friend anyone could ask for. Thank you for helping me love myself, accepting myself and showing me how to live. Your eternal friend, Charles Lisée.

“ Though i haven't seen Sheldon in many years he has and will always be in my thoughts, he, along with many others, helped save my life when it needed to be saved. Unconditional love and friendship. One of my fondest memories, in the basement of Mindy and Dallas' playing poker, you thought you had him beat, he would lay his winning hand on the table, look you in the eye and say, "I am the HOG with the BIG NUTS" :-). Yes you are my friend Rest In Peace

“ I am so blessed to have had the most beautiful time of my life with you, my love. It just isn't fair that it couldn't be longer. Soulmates can never be far apart though. Your gentle soul will always be with me. I love you forever and always... I'll see your on the other side.

“ My memories of Sheldon? How much time do you have exactly! I met Sheldon when my mom told me there was a new kid on the block, so I rode down the street... and he says, although it doesn't sound like me, that I skidded my bike and said hello. That was just the beginning of what would be maybe 50 years of friendship. When I think back, we did so much together as children, at some point we drifted apart and then back again. I looked out for Sheldon when I could, and he me, helping each other during some rough times. We shared similar passions along the way. too. I wished I'd been there more during celebrations with families but we mostly spent time just us. I'll think of you often. My best for you in the life ahead.
