Diane, as a kid, I slept over your house so many times that your mother, Shulamit, (as I know her) was like a second mother to me. She loved to cook for us, and she made the most delicious mushroom barley soup I have ever had, to this day!

I remember how much she adored your family poodle, Ricky. When she played with him she always called him her little “Ricky Ricardo”.

Our parents were the best of friends, and even though they were hard working immigrants, they really made it a point to get together and socialize.

My heartfelt condolences to you, Ada and Fred.

With love, Marilyn Growe-Sulkes.

“ Diane,
Your mother, Shulamit, as I knew her, was like a second mother to me, since I slept over your house so many times when we’re were kids. I adored her.

She used to always cook for us and, to this day, made the best mushroom barley soup I’ve ever had. I hope she gave you the recipe!

She adored your family’s pet poodle, Ricky, and I loved when she called him her little “Ricky Ricardo”.

Our parents were all hard working immigrants but they always made time to get together, and were the best of friends.

*Sending condolences to you, Ada and Fred. With love,
Marilyn Growe-Sulkes*
