Shirley Broder Age 96, of Birmingham, died September 29, 2025

Beloved wife of the late Joseph Broder. Cherished mother of Elaine (the late John) Davidson, Judy (Mark) Goldsmith, and Suzi (Avie) Benaderet. Proud grandmother of Michael Hootner, Stephanie and Jared Rosenbaum, Max Goldsmith, Michelle Benaderet, Gaby and Solomon Benaderet, Orly and Mark Rocklin, Daniel Benaderet, and Sophie and Joseph Benaderet. Loving great-grandmother of Emelia Kiley, Lexi Rosenbaum, Emily Rosenbaum, Lielle Benaderet, Ayalah Benaderet, David Rocklin, Raya Rocklin, and Adi Rocklin. She was the daughter of the late Hyman and Fanny Greenbaum, sister of Ruth Katz and Eleanor (Marvin) Weinstein. She also had first cousins, nieces, nephews, and many great-nieces and great-nephews that she was fond of.

Shirley began life in Toronto and immigrated with her family in the 1940's to Detroit where she met the love of her life, Joe. Together, they were a force and raised their three daughters in Oak Park and Southfield. When she was done raising children...she became a volunteer at the DIA and proudly worked there for over 25 years. She was active in being the favorite grandmother, and then was lucky enough to be able to dote on her great-grandchildren. She and Joe loved to travel, collect art, play tennis and golf, winter in San Diego, and stroll into downtown Birmingham for a concert, dinner and an ice cream. We imagine they are together again...holding hands...going on a long walk.

The family would like to express their gratitude to Diane Melik, who treated mom like her own mother and was with her until the end. We would also like to thank Emily Daily, Cherry Epps, Sharon King, Karen Burks, and Cherylee Grady, along with the devoted staff of St. Anne's Meade for their loving care of mom in her final moments.

“ My condolences to the Broder family. My memories of Shirley MA! She had so much love for all of her family and all that she met. I was one of the lucky ones to be able to share her wisdom and love. She taught me to never give up. But the most important and beautiful things was love and kindness and respect of others even when sometimes I could not see it. I know she is at peace with her husband . Thank you MA I love you and you will be missed. Debi

“ Dearest Judy,
No words feel big enough. Your mom, Shirley z”l, was the kind of lady you never forget—warm, witty, simple in the best, wisest way. She always asked after me and Charlie, and her kindness stayed with us long after each hello. I feel truly blessed that our paths crossed through you. The love and devotion you and your sisters (Suzi and Laniey) showed—day and night—was a beautiful honor to her life and legacy (hers and Joe's). As Tehillim teaches, “Hashem is close to the brokenhearted” (Psalm 34:19), and “With long life I will satisfy them” (Psalm 91:16). After 96 years of love and light, may her neshama have the sweetest rest.
יהי זכרה ברוך — may her memory be a blessing.
המקום ינחם אתכם בתוך שאר אבלי ציון וירושלים.
Love always
ILanit and Charlie-Shalom (Ella too:)

“ I had the privilege of taking care of Shirley's hair for many years, later in her life. She once asked me "why do you like me " I said because you are a lovely kind lady. ❤️

“ Many great memories of Shirley. I always appreciated her sense of humor and feistiness. She gave me some great advice over the many years I knew her, and always asked interesting questions. She also had a great sense of style! Much love and condolences to the entire family.
