“ I met Shirley from her brother Maxwell. She was a lovely woman with a kind, loving heart. She was soft spoken but always open. May her memory be a blessing.

“ Sending heartfelt condolences from myself and all of Shirley's friends from JVS Senior Service corps. It has been a privilege to share conversations with Shirley these past few months while the Senior Service corps was on hold. I enjoyed her lively spirit and strong convictions about various topics. Everyone else from the corps always asked about Shirley - she really made a positive impression on everyone. I was so honored to be able to have a beautiful conversation with Shirley just last Friday. I will never forget it. Thinking peaceful thoughts and prayers to all of you.

Is just stumbled onto the website and am reading my Auntie Shirley has passed. I have been in Fla. over 30 years and I am so sorry that families drifted apart. When I was visiting Detroit, I always asked about her, usually from my Auntie Tootsie.

I remember Sheldon's Bar Mitzvah party at the house. And I remember the visit from one of the sons to see my Dad, Phil, as he was close to passing. As his memory was slipping he still recalled seeing his great niece and her red hair. And I remember my Sweet Uncle Joey, with his soft voice and his great devotion.

I just wanted to thank all who add to this site. I, also, stumbled again onto this site today. Thanks to all for your beautiful comments and memories. I was lucky to have "Auntie Shirley" and "Uncle Joey" (Les-Lee Roland, my cousin, noted in prior comment) as my parents. I think of them.
