

SHIRLEY M. SCHEER

December 19, 1934 - August 27, 2025

FUNERAL SERVICE: SUNDAY, AUGUST 31, 2025, 11:30 AM, at HEBREW MEMORIAL CHAPEL.

Shirley M. Scheer, age 90, of Delray Beach, formally of West Bloomfield, died August 27, 2025

We mourn the passing of Shirley Scheer, a delightful madcap ball of energy for over 90 years. She filled every room with laughter and activity, while giving a running commentary of one-liners in English and Yiddish. She could often be found rolling on the floor with her grandchildren and was always at least one step ahead of her children, all while imparting non sequitur bits of wisdom.

An ice cream aficionado and mildly reluctant world traveler, she was a unique presence, a never-tiring source of light and upbeat energy, and we will miss her presence in all our lives. The world will be a little quieter, a little slower and certainly less silly without her. Her children and grandchildren will have to make do with telling her jokes and stories to the ones who come after.

Shirley is survived by her children: Steven (Mary), Jeffrey, Phyllis and Daniel Klaper; grandchildren: Christian (Staci), Emily (Gabby), Jaimee (Dustin), Caitlin (William), Hanan (Andrea), Daneal (Sarah), Samantha (Carson), Max, Elijah, and Madison; and great-grandchildren: Avery, Bailey, Arlie, Wolf, Grayson, Jackson, Nathaniel, Madeleine, Hadassa, Yocheved, Madeline, Ari and Riva Chaya.

Step-children: the late Bennett, the late Howard (and Marsha).

My Aunt Shirley was like a Hollywood starlet — with her blonde hair and always dressed to the nines. Growing up, I thought she was truly magical. My mom always considered her like a sister, and she was very fond of her. I know the two of them are up there together, giggling and watching over us as the angels they've become. May her memory always be a blessing.
