“ Dear Gary, Stuart and Bobby,

I was saddened to hear that Shirley had passed away this week and sorry that I am so far away and could not join you today. However, I was able to watch the webcast of the funeral this morning. It was beautiful. The words of love spoken by each of you were a true tribute to how she lived her life and the love she shared. Please know that my thoughts are with you.

*Love,
Roberta*

“ Shirley crossed my path and touched my heart  You will be Missed my Friend. I can recall visiting The Getty Museum with her lovely family. On that particular visit, Shirley and I sat picnicking on the grass and looking towards the grounds, just sitting talking and enjoying the flowers.

Shirley, darling may you Rest In Peace.

Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep by Mary Elizabeth Frye

Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there.

I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn rain.

*When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.*

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry; I am not there.

I did not die.
