“ Unfortunately I haven't seen much of my grandmother, but I know that my grandmother was the kindest woman I have ever known, although she also was getting old and sick, she would still help others. She also was of enormous beauty, as she always showed me, how she looked like a twelve year old from the back. Also she always talked about her cat every time we talked to each other, I never knew, why she loved that beast that much, this probably shows her caring and loving heart. I wish I could've visited her more and shown her my admirity more... I love you, May you rest in peace
