Sol Gringlas, 100, of West Bloomfield, died May 14, 2020.

Sol was born in Ostrowiec, Poland, the son of Leizor and Blima. A Holocaust survivor, he lived through Auschwitz and Nordhausen. After the war, he met his wife, Paula, at a refugee camp in Germany before they immigrated with their first daughter to the U.S.

Sol took pride in his craft as a tailor for more than three decades. He loved painting, walking the JCC track and Sunday morning bagels with his grandchildren. He was a member of Congregation B'nai Moshe and Sharrit Haplayta. Creative and resourceful, Sol could find a way to fix anything.

Beloved husband for nearly 60 years to the late Paula Gringlas. Devoted father of Anne (Mark) Herzberg, Helene (late Gary) Ceresnie and Leonard (Charlene) Gringlas. Loving grandfather of Jackie Herzberg, Stephanie (Aaron Kaufman) Herzberg, Emilie Herzberg, Marissa Ceresnie, Sam Gringlas and Rachel Gringlas; and great-grandfather of Ellie, Ruby, Franklin and Palina. Cherished brother of Joe (Reli) Gringlas. Loved by niece, nephew, great-nieces and nephews, many more relatives and friends.

OFFICIATING:

Rabbi E. Pachter

Rabbi S. Kantor

“ I had the privilege of "duchening" (providing the priestly blessing to the congregation) with Sol on holidays. When the ritual was restarted at B'nai n Moshe, he knew exactly what to do and clearly enjoyed his obligation as a Kohen. My late wife Anne z'l always spoke with Sol at Kliddush on Shabbos, until she became ill. Sol and Anne had something in common in that both of Anne's parents were Shoah survivors who lost their first spouses during the war. I know Anne often stated how much she enjoyed her talks with Sol and how kindly and congenial he was. May the family be comforted among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem. Jerry Katzman “ Condolences to family and friends and many virtual hugs to all. I have great memories of Sol and Pauline, especially when I took them and my parents to the Keys while visiting in Florida. It was great time spent together. Sol always tried to save me a seat in Shul so we could 'hang out'. He was a very compassionate and affectionate person. He gravitated to people and they to him. He will be dearly missed, Love Ellie and Avi Aharoni

May he rest in peace.

“ I've known the Gringlas Family, since 1957. I love this family. Sol Gringlas was always a Mensch, a gentle soul. I'm so sorry for your loss, but you were lucky to have Sol for so long.. May his memory be for a blessing.

“ I met Sol as a driver for Meals on Wheels. It was a weekly how are you doing until the article written by his grandson appeared in the JN. I started having 10 minute chats with Sol. He had a lot of life stories to tell. He was missed when he moved to Fleishman.
