“ Bev and I just today were informed of the passing of Sol. We both feel a very real sense of loss., We recall his smile and soft demeanor,. present at all times. He was a rock for his wife and companion Frances, as I was a witness for several years to their close and endearing relationship both as a friend and as a physician. He will be very much missed but not forgotten--ever. If only many more people had known his quiet strength and his indestructible faith, this world would be a much place for us all., Beverly and Bill Leuchter.
