“ Cousin Stan was an incredible person who lived an extraordinary life with his beautiful wife Helen and children. As we grew up he was always concerned, loving and made great effort to be involved in all of our personal lives. We all remember fondly the summers at the cottage and his amazing bright and witty personality and soft way and smile. The family should be comforted for having such an extraordinary individual for so many years and he has left us all better for having known him.

“ I had the privilege of meeting Stanley when he and his Son, Steve, visited me at my shop in Birmingham. Steve is a very dear friend of my brother Ed. Although their visit was short, Stanley exuded a gifted presence about him that I have and will always remember.
