“ There was John, Paul, George and Ringo. Then, there was Stacey, Steve, Paul (a different one) and Keith. I was the last one in and that was 54 years ago. We were inseparable and the nucleus of a larger group that included Ira, Ron, Alan, Linda, Janet, Laurie and so many more but the 4 spent the most time together. I still recall us in the basement on Patton listening to Chicago or the Doobie Brothers playing our rings or forks against the glasses our drinks were in. Memories of the trip to Cedar point with 6 or 7 of us packed into Steve's Vega. It was a great day and then Steve wanted Chicken so we drove from Cedar Point to Frankenmuth. It was only a 4 ^[L L L]_[SEP:SEP]hour ride. ^[L L L]_[SEP:SEP]

Steve and I drove each other to school and picked up Kathy on the way. She remembers that with a smile too. ^[L L L]_[SEP:SEP]Always the fun guy. Always with a great knowledge of music. Always with a lot of hair.

We lost touch along the way but finally reconnected again a few years back. Stacey and I actually visited Steve last September. We even took him his favorite seven layer cake. He was going to join us at the 50th reunion but at last minute didn't feel good about going. EVERYONE asked about him and wished he had come.

Some years were not great but through it all he pushed through and smiled. ^[L L L]_[SEP:SEP]I spoke to Steve a week and a half ago. I called Stacey to tell him Steve sounded the best he had in a long time. I am happy that was the news from the last call we would ever have. It was positive. ^[L L L]_[SEP:SEP]Steve never got to visit us in California. It was what was planned next. That would have been fun, driving down PCH with the top down, 4 70 year old gray haired guys driving along at the top of their lungs. ^[L L L]_[SEP:SEP]

We had a great time growing up together. Whether we were at Pine Knob, Stacey's house, or the house on Patton cause Steve had to watch his grandmother, it was ALWAYS a party. ^[L L L]_[SEP:SEP]

Rest in peace my friend. We will cherish the memories until once again we crank up the sound and LISTEN TO THE MUSIC.

Your Brother from Another Mother.

“ Hey Stevie, boy, it's me, your oldest best friend since third grade. When I get there, look me up and reserve me some time for a few more games of ping-pong. Thanks for all those memories of growing up.
