Age 63, of Huntington Woods, died August 11, 2019.

Steven was especially known for his loving devotion to family and friends, personal integrity and civic responsibility. He regularly took his mother on sightseeing adventures throughout Michigan; the true value being the time they spent together.

Steven graduated from Hillsdale College with a degree in Economics and Business, and was a Certified Financial Planner. He had a passion for life, and saw every new day as an opportunity for adventure and growth. As owner of Artends, he enthusiastically sought rare and unusual antiques. He founded The Societism Institute, which promoted a healthy balance between the well-being of collective society and the significance and rights of the individual.

Steven is survived by his mother Shirley (the late Donald) Zimberg; daughter Alexis (David) Lerner, son Zachary Zimberg, grandchildren Magda Rose and Levi Lerner; siblings Marvin (Madeline) Zimberg, Jerry (Susie) Zimberg, Avraham Robert Zimberg, Leonard (Shani) Zimberg, Sarah (Rabbi Eliezer) Lachman, and

“ This is such shocking news. I haven't seen Steve since we were in our first years of college, we reconnected recently due to good old social network. My good memories of Steve are of him laughing having fun and enjoying life. I know Steves large extended family that we were all interconnected with as teens and young adults. My heart goes out to the family and all loved ones.

Allen Greenstein. One of my closest friends. I was with Steve 10 hours prior to his passing. The best friend ever. I'm still trying to process this tragedy. Rest In Peace Steve.

Allen Greenstein - August 11, 2019 at 07:58 PM

Was at a number of his events. So Sorry!!

I too, met Steve through the Jewish Mingles Group. He always made me feel welcome and had a warm smile for everyone. One event that stands out is when the group met for dinner at Uptown Grill in the Winter one time. Due to the day being very snowy only a few showed. We all had a lot of fun and conversation though!

Steven was simply one of the Zimbergs, the family our family was closest to throughout my and my siblings childhoods and part of the fabric of our lives. His parents and ours were always and remained lifetime best friends throughout our lifetimes. Of all the Zimbergs Steven was a character always, sometimes naughty as a kid and with a special sense of humour A leader, dedicated father and loving son, generous, funny, caring and spontaneous. I cant imagine him being gone. May he remain of blessed memory. My heartfekt condolences.

We are shocked and deeply saddened by this tragic news. Our hearts are broken as we grieve his loss. Steven was a mentsh in every way, kind, thoughtful to everyone he met. He was always there for his beloved mother. Steve came to San Diego a couple of years ago and we all had a incredibly wonderful time with him.

The Zimbergs were very dear friends of ours while we lived in Detroit. The family was an exemplary model of how to show derech erez and chesed to everyone they welcomed into their warm and loving home.

May G-d give this beautiful family strength at this difficult time. May Hashem take care of Steven, watch over him, protect him and shelter him with gentleness and love.

I am devastated, he came over for a visit and I just had dinner with him. Always funny, always encouraging and positive. He pushed me to be a better man and live to my potential. Sharing ideas, relationship advice and many of his stories. I lost a dear friend that cannot be replaced. I will truly miss calling him at 11pm and meeting for his favorite dessert of rice pudding.

He was one of a kind, kindness being the operative word.

Always willing to help another, laughing and enjoying life.

I've known Steve for a number of years and spent many a steam with him at the Schvitz. He had a great heart and truly cared about others. Kind. A true mensch. I had the blessing of seeing him only hours before his passing. He looked great, relaxed, and seemed to have a glow about him. He touched many and will be missed by all.

I was fortunate enough to have had the delight of getting to know Steve through OCRP and the 14th Congressional Republican Party. In fact, last week Steve was at the OCRP budget and Executive Committee meetings. I loved my opportunities to talk with him at and after these meetings when many would go out afterwards to get together. He was thoughtful, funny, interesting, and caring. Steven, you are already sorely missed by so many of us who knew you. My prayers to your family and your friends. May your name be a blessing.

I have known Steve from the time I was born. I remember family outings from the time we were toddlers. Growing up my favorite things were when we went to the Zimbergs home or on outings with them. My heart is broken and shattered now knowing a huge part of my childhood is gone now. My heart also breaks for his entire family and everyone who were blessed enough to know him. May his memory be a blessing
