Elizabeth, I'm heartbroken. I just found out and I'm crushed. It will take me a while to adjust. Please be well.

“ To all family. I knew Mr Patt thru his daughter Lisa. My son Ben is Lisa's boyfriend. On a trip a few years ago to DC he was so gracious and gave us a private tour of the Library of Congress. That is a lasting memory of him. I saw him on a few occasions when he visited Lisa and Ben in Milwaukee. Wonderful conversationalist and charming man A man to be missed. Carol Kremer /Milwaukee WI

“ Stuart is like a brother. We have been friends for nearly seven decades and have shared the major events in our lives. We will eventually share this one, too. Stuart was the embodiment of a close friend, whose wisdom and empathy guided me through many of life's hazards. He made me a better person and enriched the lives of those who knew him. A man of many talents and interests, Stuart was a pianist, stage actor, radio personality, comedy writer, airplane pilot, attorney, and historian of American institutions. He was also a devoted father to Lisa and husband to Elizabeth. Stuart's legacy will live on, but to say he will be missed stretches the definition of understatement.

Goodbye my brother.....
