“ I first met Susie at Saks Somerset where she has been working for many many years. Our relationship was more a friendship and we kept in touch outside of the store as well as in it! My two daughters have grown up knowing her and consulting her for fashion advice as well. We were all so saddened by news of Susie's untimely passing. She will be greatly missed by all of us and all who have known her. Our deepest condolences to Susie's family.

“ I was so sad to hear Susie passed away. She was the dearest angel. Always happy, smiling and friendly.

She loved children and they loved her. I knew Susie from Saks and she lite up when children were around. A child can tell a gentle soul and children were mesmerized by Susie.

She was especially kind to my grandchildren and my daughter Judith and I will always hold her dear in our hearts.

*Susie, you will be in my heart and prayers forever.
Love,*

“ Susie touched everyone whom she met with her warmth, sparkle and laughter. She was my dear first cousin. I remember well when her parents, Uncle Abe and Aunt Rose, and her sisters traveled to New York to visit Uncle Abe’s side of the family. It was always a celebration with so much laughter. I also remember Uncle Abe’s magic tricks with a hard-boiled egg and playing cards. Susie inherited his pleasure in delighting everyone, young and old. She had a similar gift of conveying how much she valued her time with each of us. She made each of us feel special because she was so very special herself. Everyone who knew her will feel her loss. --

“ You have one or two friends that go back, way back to when you were kids, to when your friend remembers your mom, your sister, your brother, your dad....and you remember hers. That is the friend who I have lost. Sue and I shared history...we would go to Northland on the bus, and share mashed potatoes with gravy and coca cola. We were different, but we were the same. Sincerity, honesty, and kindness. Sue had all of these traits. We could be ourselves when we were with each other. I will miss her so...

I will always miss my cousin Susie. She was one of the funniest, sweet, kind and dependable people I knew. Always had a good word for everybody. Growing up, I'll always remember shopping with her at Pickwick's, going to the movies, family bar-b-ques, etc. RIP dear Susi
