“ I am so sorry to learn of Sylvia's death. I was her hair stylist for many years until I married and decided to be a stay at home Mom. Sylvia was always cheerful and picked up lunch from the deli for everyone every Friday. Rest in peace.

“ Sylvia was the most loving Bubbie to our son Jonathon Waldman, from birth until she was no longer able to visit with him. As a former daughter in law, I will be forever grateful for the unconditional love they had with one another. The type of love a grandchild holds in his hear and soul creating cherished memories (many so funny we still laugh out loud) for a life time. May you finally rest in peace, Tzipa. Debbie Waldman

“ I’m so sorry. I’m Jana Wolock, the daughter of David Wolock. I remember as a kid, going to visit at Cass Lake. I remember my Dad telling us about all the relatives and how much he enjoyed going there as a kid. I’m so sorry for your loss.
