Violet "Vi" Jacob, 94, formerly of the Detroit area for over eight decades died on May 25, 2024, in Delray Beach, FL.

Rabbi Joseph Krakoff will officiate.

Vi was born on November 1, 1929 in Detroit. She met her husband and lifetime partner, the late Martin "Marty" Jacob, at Central High School in Detroit. They were an inseparable couple for 64 years. Dedicated to family, crisscrossing generations, Vi was always positive, upbeat, and constantly looking out for others. She loved socializing, travel, boating, and fishing with family and friends. She was always involved with fashion and charitable endeavors. Vi demonstrated an inescapable joy for life.

In particular, she loved children and was blessed with an extensive family. Even in her last days, her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews brought a huge and radiant smile to her face. She will be deeply missed by her family, friends and all that knew her.

Vi is survived by her children, Darrell Jacob and son in-law Rick Owen, Elyse Jacob and son in-law Scott Bass, and son Joel Jacob. Her grandchildren; Max Owen, Stephen (Sarah) Bass, Brian Bass, Coleman (Lily) Bass, Merrick Jacob, Andrew (Shayna) Jacob, Autumn Jacob, Michael Jacob, and Micayla Jacob. Great grandchildren; Julia, John, and Sy Bass; Chananya and Leora Jacob. She leaves many nieces and nephews, including a lifelong bond with Sheldon and Barbara Larky. She is the youngest sister of the late Doris Lipton and Irving (Lucille) Larky.
