“ Met Wil through our mutual friend Helene (who was family member by choice not relation).

We biked and attended family events at Helene's. Smart, sweet, kind man. He was a blessing and will be missed.

“ Wil was a smart, independent and adventurous person. I was so lucky to have him in my life as chosen family. We spent countless holidays and birthdays together. He inspired my love of nature, healthful foods and autonomy. Wil could build practically anything out of wood, including his own sailboat and canoe. I have many happy memories of Wil and will miss him dearly.
