“ Yury was a genuine person who I admire greatly for having the courage to be true to himself and to others. He was generous, hardworking, and so proud of his family. I truly enjoyed working with him and will miss his advice and our deep conversations as a friend. Sincerest condolences and prayers extended to his family, may he rest in peace.

“ From the Stefos family, I want to tell you Larisa and Marina, Roman how deeply saddened we are for this tragic and unexplained loss of such a young and vibrant man! I still cannot believe it. I was asking Mika just this past weekend when Yuri and Larisa would finally return from China... Words cannot explain how bad we feel! How sad and how shocked we are.

I remember Yuri the day our daughters moved into a small dorm room when they started their freshman year at UofM. He was moving Marina, and Steve and I were moving Mika. We shared some laughs when the girls wanted a TV and Yuri didn't think it was a necessary accessory. After all, he said, you are here to study not watch TV! I agreed....but ultimately caved in and brought a TV into the dorm.

Our thoughts are with you. I hope God gives you peace soon. Larisa, I am here for you anytime you want to talk.
