“ Zina was so friendly in our water aerobics classes at Bloomfield Township Senior Services on Saturdays. I was very surprised to see the sad news on a newsfeed on Facebook. Today I read this which confirmed the Facebook condolences that others posted. Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ Zina had a heart of gold! I would greet her, Hi, Zina-Zina and she would say, 'Hi, Sonya-Sonya'. I never heard her complain, we compared stories of my daughter and her precious granddaughter. I remember she introduced buckwheat to me and suggested my father try some for his health. I will NEVER forget her intelligence, her sense of humor and her love for her family ❤️

“ Zina was a caring person and also had a sense of humor. She always asked about my kids and looked forward to see what plans we had for the weekend. She admired me pursuing my degree and was always interested in how my day went in a particular class. We always talked about how her granddaughter and my son was doing in school and the things they would say to make us laugh. Zina loved her family dearly. I'm going to miss having those conversations and sitting in the cubicle with you and you saying Vickie!! you only have 2 mins to punch in.

“ I remember how proud she was of her daughter and how much she loved her granddaughter and the way her face would light up when she shared pictures of her with me. I also remember how much she loved her husband.

Zina was a very caring person. She always asked me how my girls were doing. She loved her family dearly. She was a proud mother, grandmother and wife. I will truly miss seeing her at work.
